

Pension Corporation Strengthens Team To Ensure Smooth Processing of New Business Pipeline

London, 10 September 2009 - Pension Corporation, a leading provider of risk management solutions to defined benefit pension funds, today announces that it has made a number of appointments across the business to bolster its team.

Laura Upton and Tim Edwards have been appointed senior transition managers within the operations team; Marco Diolosa and John Sladden have joined the Asset-Liability Management team; Richard Purcell joins Pension Corporation as actuary within the finance team; and Ben Tregoning joins as business development executive working across Pension Corporation Investments and Pension Insurance Corporation to analyse specific transactions.

Ben Tregoning, John Sladden, Laura Upton and Tim Edwards join Pension Corporation from Paternoster. Richard Purcell joins from Watson Wyatt and Marco Diolosa from Russell Investments.

Kim Gozzett, Partnership Director, Pension Corporation, said:

"I am delighted that we have been able to appoint so many outstanding candidates. Pension Corporation has an increasingly busy pipeline of transactions and it is important that we have the people to ensure that they run smoothly. These appointments, combined with our existing team, will ensure we maintain a first class level of service for trustees and corporate sponsors."

